

Did you know?

The Fresno Police Chaplaincy responds to more than 2,000 calls every year.

Chaplains do more than notify community members of a loss - we're actively working to support the community 24/7.

A patrol chaplain may be called to assist with:

- community events
- ride-alongs
- major incidents
- domestic disturbances
- NEST (Neighborhood Emergency Support Team) mobile unit callouts
- assisting other local community agencies

Ministry can't always wait until Sunday - The Fresno Police Chaplaincy is here to help.

The Fresno Police Chaplaincy partners with law enforcement to bring hope to our community.

Ministry can't always wait until Sunday.

What do we do to help?

Support FPD Personnel

As part of our partnership with the Fresno Police Department, our patrol chaplains provide FPD personnel with:

- guidance and counseling
- spiritual guidance
- encouragement
- financial difficulties
- stress management for critical incidents

Respond to Incidents

Patrol chaplains respond to 2,000 calls every year. Although they are not involved in cases where physical force, arrests, or drugs are present, they do visit those affected by incidents to check on their wellbeing and provide resources to help families deal with difficult circumstances. Chaplains are also responsible for death notification and often provide counseling.

Follow Up in the Community

Trained chaplains follow up with families in the community after a domestic disturbance. Chaplains work with Fresno PD's Domestic Violence Unit by meeting with victims, offering education on cycles of violence, and providing exit strategies and safe housing for victims. Chaplains also identify relational strains between community members and take strides to stop the escalation of violence and bring about lasting change.
